

A movie poster for the film 'The Legend' (传说). The central image shows two men standing on a wide, ancient stone staircase that winds up a steep, rocky mountain. The man on the left is dressed in modern military gear, including a black tactical jacket, a helmet with goggles, and a rifle slung over his shoulder. The man on the right is in traditional Chinese armor, featuring a red and silver helmet and a red and black tunic. In the background, other figures are visible on the stairs, including a man in a blue jacket and another in a dark, fur-trimmed robe. The title '传说' (The Legend) is prominently displayed in large, golden, stylized Chinese characters at the bottom center, set against a decorative circular emblem. The overall atmosphere is one of epic adventure and historical fantasy.
